YOU MADE IT! CONGRATULATIONS...NOW GET CONNECTED!

You may be feeling excited, overwhelmed or anxious about life after Waynesburg. What are your plans: employment, grad school, missions, or you just don't know? Let the Career Center help you explore different options and help you prepare for this transition.

- One-on-One Career Counseling Session
  Come talk to us about your plans. Connect with resources related to your vocation-everything from interviewing, the application process, resume review, grad school applications, development of prospective employer lists, and much more!

- Job Search Assistance
  Whether you plan to stay in the area or move away, we can assist you with your job or grad school search. Watch for notices about upcoming job fair dates and be sure and have us make several copies of your resume for you to take and hand out.

- Workshops & Programs
  Participate in on-campus recruiting as well as workshops, seminars and practice interviews. Get your resume critiqued and copied. Participate in the Etiquette Luncheon for seniors to learn basic etiquette for lunch and dinner interviews.

- Job Fairs/Grad School Expo
  Go to job fairs on and off campus to practice interviewing skills by meeting with employers face-to-face. Attend the WestPACs job fair for all majors which is held both semesters in Monroeville. Also come to one of our job fairs on campus. In September, plan to attend the Grad School Expo in the gymnasium.

- Professional Development Workshop
  Register for this one-credit course for seniors designed to prepare you for post-graduate experiences.

- Job/Internship Postings
